

3. When the chalice minister offers the consecrated Wine, it is helpful if you assist by gently touching the base of the chalice, guiding the cup to your lips, and taking a small sip.
4. Sharing the common chalice is a powerful sacramental symbol and privilege enjoyed by Anglicans for nearly 500 years. This practice has never been associated with the spread of any illness. Nevertheless, persons who do not wish to receive the consecrated Wine for any reason may accept the Host only; Holy Communion is fully received under either form of Bread or Wine. Simply cross your arms over your chest to indicate to the chalice minister that you are declining to receive from the cup.
6. Please remove any gloves before receiving the Host. We would ask ladies to remove lipstick before drinking from the chalice.
7. After the person following you has received the chalice, rise and return to your pew.
8. Many people bow or genuflect when they leave their pews to approach the Blessed Sacrament. Many others make the sign of the cross when they receive Communion and at other times during the service. These acts are traditional personal devotions done out of respect for the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We welcome these signs of reverence, but we do not require them or expect them of everyone.
9. The Blessed Sacrament is perpetually reserved at SAINT GEORGE'S for prayer and devotion as well as for the Communion of the sick and homebound. The Aumbry for the Sacrament, to the left of the Altar, is marked by a white light which burns constantly.
10. If you wish to come to the altar rail to receive only a blessing from the priest (without receiving Communion), cross your arms over your chest. Remain in that posture until the person following you has finished receiving both the Bread and the Wine. You may receive the priest's blessing whether you are a baptized Christian or not.

We want everyone to feel welcome and able to worship the Lord with us at SAINT GEORGE'S, especially when we celebrate the Holy Eucharist. This is a House of Prayer for all people. If you are interested in becoming fully initiated as a Christian and being baptized (and confirmed), please contact one of the Clergy. We would be delighted to speak with you. Whoever you are, welcome to the Body of Christ!

CELEBRATING THE HOLY EUCHARIST

The Holy Eucharist, the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, goes by many names in the Christian community: the Lord's Supper, the Divine Liturgy, the Mass, the Holy Mysteries, the Holy Sacrifice, Holy Communion. Jesus instituted the Eucharist on the night before he died for us and told his followers to "do this for the remembrance of me." The Eucharist is the outward and visible sign of our Redemption by the sacrifice, death, and resurrection of Jesus our Lord.

In the sacramental tradition of Christianity, which includes the Anglican tradition, the Eucharist is the principal service on the Lord's Day (Sunday) and all Major Holy Days. Our Church upholds the Real Presence of Jesus in this Sacrament. At SAINT GEORGE'S, we have the joy and privilege of celebrating the Eucharist every Sunday of the year.

The Anglican Church, of which SAINT GEORGE'S is a parish in the Diocese of Calgary, welcomes all baptized Christians to receive the Blessed Sacrament at its altar, if they desire the Body and Blood of Christ, and if, in the words of the Invitation, they truly and earnestly repent of their sins and are in love and charity with their neighbours. The following directions are intended to assist our visitors and guests.

1. The People approach the altar rail through the centre aisle and proceed to find a space at the rail. It is customary at SAINT GEORGE'S to kneel, but it is acceptable to stand.
2. While we are familiar with, and respect, other customs, an Anglican customarily places one's right palm across the left for the priest to place the Host (the wafer of consecrated Bread) upon the open palm, then raises the Host to one's mouth and consume it.

WELCOME! A NOTE TO VISITORS

If you are visiting Banff from out of town, a very warm greeting to you. Please join us for coffee and light refreshments after our service. Since 1889, Saint George's has welcomed visitors from all over the world to Banff National Park.

In our worship, we alternate between the two approved Canadian Anglican Eucharistic rites: from the Book of Common Prayer and the Book of Alternative Services. Occasionally, we enjoy a rite from another part of the world.

We feel we are called by God to serve as a centre of Anglican worship, community service, and connection with creation within the community of Banff. Anchored by the Anglican tradition, we open our doors and our hearts to all regardless of their faith or tradition. We strive to demonstrate Jesus' love and teachings through our services, events, activities and practices.

We hope you enjoy your visit, and learn more about us. Please visit our website at www.StGeorgesInThePines.org from time to time. We are a small, hard-working congregation that struggles to provide the resources to keep our ministry vital and our 120-year-old building viable. You may feel called to become a Friend of Saint George's and share in this ministry. There are visitors' envelopes on the back table and your gift will be responsibly used and much appreciated. You can also click on the "Canada Helps" link on our website and make a donation that will be instantly receipted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) for income tax purposes.

May God bless your time here in Banff, and may your time here be a time of relaxation, refreshment and renewal.

THE CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM

Thanksgiving over the Water ALL STAND

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over water the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through water you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In water your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who are here cleansed from sin and born again, may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant.

The Baptismal Covenant ALL REMAIN STANDING

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in God the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the good news of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more
than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Lenten Blessing

Celebrant May the God of mercy transform you by his grace;
and the ✠ blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

blessèd is he who comes, comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!

PLEASE KNEEL OR BE SEATED

Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God,
for the goodness and love
you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people;
in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him
to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil,
and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us
out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness,
out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over
to suffering and death,
a death he freely accepted,
our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples,
and said, "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine;
and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them,
and said, "Drink this, all of you:
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,
People we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving
to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation,
this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts,
that they may be the sacrament
of the body of Christ
and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice,
that we, made acceptable in him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
