

The Blessing of the Sunday School Children

Celebrant As we remain kneeling, I invite the children of the Sunday School to come to the altar rail for a blessing.

Children, this service marks the drawing to a close of the 2009/2010 Sunday School. A small part of your young lives has been spent in this beautiful and special place. I hope that in the years to come, you will be pleased that you have offered your time and talents here, and that you will come to understand at deeper and deeper levels the true significance of what you have been involved in. The time has now come for you to face new adventures, to achieve new things, and to make new friends. We hope very much that, as you leave us, you will go with confidence and hope, and, with determination always, to offer your very best, in whatever sphere of life you may be called to, and that you will take with you a love of beauty, respect for truth, a desire to serve others, and the seeds of the faith that will endure.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, who for generations has enriched this parish by the faithful service of its members, and those who support its daily life, we commend now to your protection, N, [N, and N,] now to leave our fellowship for a time. Preserve them from all that may harm in body or in spirit, all the days of their life. Give them the companionship of faithful friends, trustworthy neighbours, and loyal colleagues. And most of all, continue to assure them of your presence and your love on their pilgrimage in this world, and unto the joys of life eternal. This we ask for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant Now may the Lord preserve and keep you, the Lord make his face to shine upon you and give you his peace, the Lord always draw you closer to Himself and work in you and through you the good purpose of His perfect will; and the ✠ blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Closing Hymn ALL STAND

Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing,
thanks for mercies past receive;
pardon all, their faults confessing;
time that's lost may all retrieve;
may thy children,
ne'er again thy Spirit grieve.

Bless thou all our days of leisure;
help us selfish lures to flee;
sanctify our every pleasure;
pure and blameless may it be;
may our gladness
draw us evermore to thee.

By thy kindly influence cherish
all the good we have gained;
may all taint of evil perish
by thy mightier power restrained;
seek we ever
knowledge pure and love unfeigned.

Let thy father-hand be shielding
all who here shall meet no more;
may their seed-time past be yielding
year by year a richer store;
those returning,
make more faithful than before.

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All I believe in God, the Father almighty,

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
